“A testing 7 mile road race through the beautiful East Leicestershire countryside”

THE HUNGARTON 7

As per the last few years, the race follows the 'original' course. Leaving Hungarton, heading towards Keyham and Billesdon Coplow and taking in the lovely downhill of Sludge Hill. The race will still of course have mile markers, drinks stations and a fast efficient results service.

All Racing Numbers and timing Chips will be issued on the day this year from the village hall, so please arrive in good time.

Road Running League Race

It has, since its inception, been a member of the Leicestershire Road Running League which has over 1000 registered members. This ensures that the race always has good support and maintains a good quality profile in running circles.

Wednesday 10th July 2013 · 7:15pm · Hungarton Village Hall, LE7 9JH

Wreake Runners

The Hungarton 7 is organised and promoted by Wreake Runners.

(If you are not a club runner already, why not come and try us out? You can join on a no obligation trial basis at no cost to see if you like us – You will be guaranteed a warm welcome).

A club for all abilities and aspirations

We are a friendly club with a membership in excess of 100 in both our adult and young athlete sections.

Contrary to common belief, running clubs are not elitist, we have groups in the club that cater for all abilities and aspirations. We have groups ranging from 'absolute beginners' right through to seasoned members who run up to marathon distance. Adults meet at 6.45pm on Tuesdays and Thursdays at The Hub, Roundhill Academy, Thurmaston. Young Athletes/Improvers/ Track section meet on Saturday mornings at 10.30am on the track at the front of Wreake Valley College in Syston.
